IN THE NEWS

A SOUTHERN GORILLA PRODIGY.—Jimmie doesn't seem keen for the kisses of Jimmie, New Orleans baby gorilla, even if Jimmie can play the piano and hit typewriter keys at the age of 16 months.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.—They jump right in—these early spring British swimmers—even if the water is not cold. It's at the Chiswick open air baths.

Harbell in Contest

Harbell, President Harding's saddle horse, will be entered in the National Capital Horse Show, Washington.

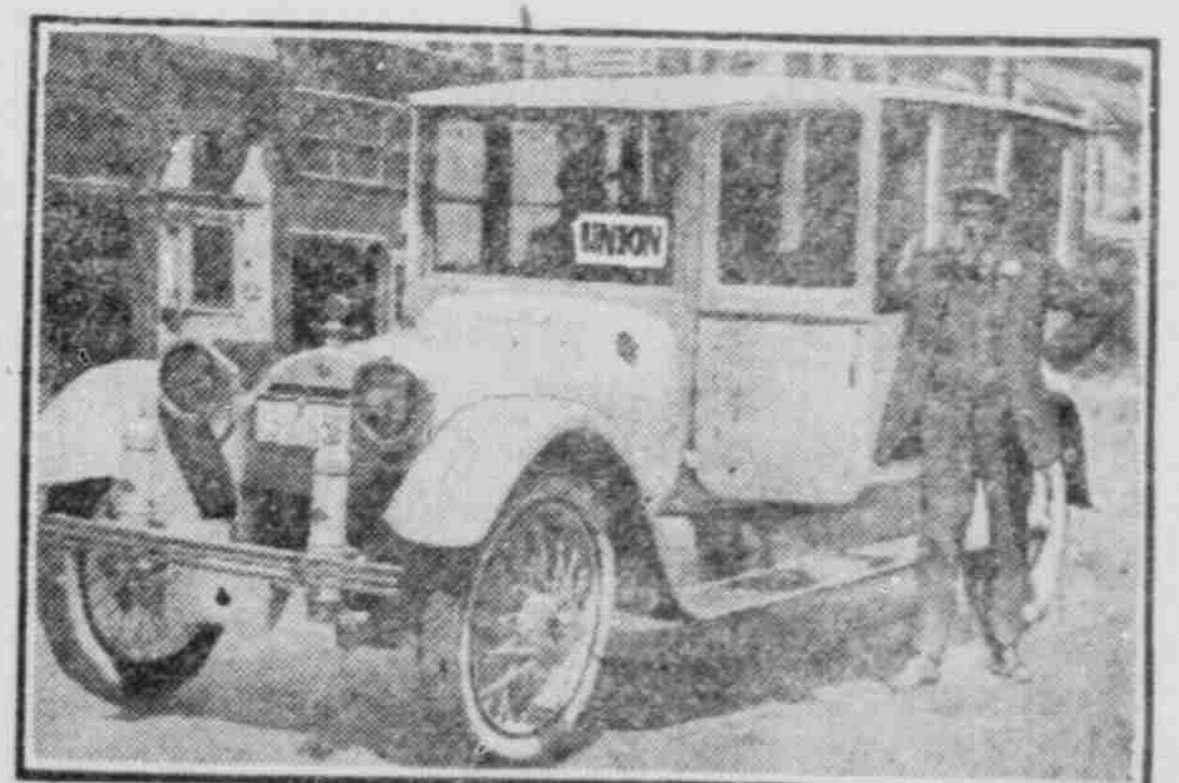

New for Him

Riding in a baby carriage is nothing in the young life of your baby—but it is for Russell Kinaley, Nellaville, Wis., for his mother says he's the first Winnebago papoose to ride in one.

First picture of Ah Boong Nyun and Kim Bak Song, Koreans, who escaped from the Japanese consulate at Shanghai where they were held for the killing of Mrs. W. J. Snyder, American tourist, while attempting to assassinate Baron Tanaka, former Japanese minister of war. They were recaptured and now are on their way to Nagasaki for trial.

FIRST UNION FUNERAL.—Hearse and mourners' conveyances in this San Francisco funeral appeared bearing union labels. The reason: A strike of taxi and auto drivers.
